am trying to send an notification from a service to an activity. The notification itself is working fine and it's coming in the notification tray but I want to display it only when the time changes. Can any of you guys help me? I am able to show the notification when the service starts up but when the time changes I want to show another notification without the title. Can anyone tell me how to do it? This is the code I am using public class NotificationService extends Service { Notification notification; NotificationManager notificationManager; @Override public void onCreate() { notification = new Notification(R.drawable.ic_launcher, "Clock", System.currentTimeMillis()); notificationManager = (NotificationManager) getSystemService(Context.NOTIFICATION_SERVICE); } @Override
