It was very old, and very large, with only two doors: The door to the inside of the house, and the door to the outside. There was an old man in the house, and he was very good with magic. He liked to play tricks on the children, but when he grew old he decided to stop playing, and he took the job as a housekeeper. One night, the children were all asleep, the dogs were locked up in their kennel, and the old man was the only one inside the house. That night, he was standing in front of the door to the outside, waiting for someone to come. As he stood there, he looked at a firefly, and the firefly was very lonely. The old man decided that he would be the firefly's friend
