Slide to Read is a simple, yet very functional yet under-used PowerPoint add-in that you can use to give your audience the opportunity to interact with your presentation. This is because the tool allows them to engage in a live feedback session in which they are able to read a slide from the PowerPoint presentation, and you are able to interact with them in real-time. You should know that the tool also allows you to share the same screen with the presentation, but for the sake of simplicity, we will only be focusing on its slide to read functionality. The fact that the program can be used for both individual presentations as well as team presentations is not something that is lost on the designers, which is why the program has been developed in a way that it is easy to use. You only need to select the Slide to Read functionality from the main menu, and all you have to do is select the slide you wish to activate it. Gives the presentation more life The added advantage of the program is that it helps you to make the presentations more engaging. By letting the audience interact with it, you are able to build a rapport with your audience. It also gives them the opportunity to ask you questions, and interact with the information you provide. What makes this tool even more appealing is the fact that it is very easy to use. All you have to do is tap the respective slide once it has been selected. The tool will then read the slide in order to give you the opportunity to have a live feedback session. You can share the screen as well as provide voice commands All of this translates to the fact that the tool is capable of providing you with a variety of uses. This includes the sharing of your PowerPoint slides, providing voice commands, or interacting with the audience. All things considered, Slide to Read is a nice tool you could employ in order to make your presentations stand out from the crowd, and thus add life to your presentation. Description: AppTrends for Microsoft PowerPoint is a useful software application that allows you to enhance your PowerPoint presentations. The add-in has been designed in a way that could be used by people who are running Windows 10 or Windows 7. Enables you to preview presentation options and reviews in real-time In addition to that, the software utility also allows you to preview your PowerPoint presentations to make sure that they look great before you go to press with them. If you don't have the budget for a professional presentation, for example
