XNAP Is Mr Boo Mr Boo is a comic strip written and drawn by Sergio Aragonés, and published in the Spanish comic book series, Blok, which is published by the Codiciado Group. It appeared weekly in the magazine from January 11, 1987 through May 11, 1988. Originally the comic was written and drawn by Aragonés alone, but it was later expanded with new stories by Mike Higgs. The comic can be described as a version of The Adventures of Tintin, in which the main character is a comical, clumsy and often-foolish little boy called Mr Boo and he is accompanied by a dog called Harvey. In 2003, Mr Boo made an appearance in the Spanish TV series, Manos Arriba!. The boy was played by Emilio Sánchez Savín, while Harvey was portrayed by a pug dog named Pepper. Officials at the University of Hawaii at Hilo said they are offering a $5,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person who launched cyber attacks against Barely Legal Hawaii on March 4. The attack on the website briefly brought it to a halt and a portion of the website showed a message that it was "denied" by the server. A message on the website read, "This is not a backdoor but rather a security measure introduced by the Web server provider. We apologize for any inconvenience that this may cause." A person who identified himself as the operator of Barely
