(CNN) -- A Pennsylvania county sheriff says the man who killed four people in a car wreck was driving drunk -- and fleeing a traffic stop. Law enforcement officials said on Saturday that Charles Carl Roberts Jr. was driving a Jeep Cherokee on a country road when it crashed into a tree. Roberts, 19, was taken to a nearby hospital for treatment of multiple injuries before his arrest. Willsboro Mayor George Morrison told CNN affiliate WKBW that Roberts was pulled over in a separate traffic stop on Friday for allegedly not having a front license plate on his vehicle. Morrison said Roberts apparently did not have proper identification and drove off, leading to the fatal car wreck. Morrison said the confrontation took place after the crash when police, who were called about the initial stop, tried to check on Roberts' condition. Roberts was charged with four counts of homicide. His bond was set at $1.5 million, according to CNN affiliate WTAE. The Jeep, driven by an unidentified passenger, also was involved in the collision.
