introduce you to the best satnav at present. It's VIAMichelin and it's full of surprises. A must if you buy your satnav. Read on for more details. Plus on special offer. While normally we concentrate on navigation systems, and even that mainly on GPS, it's nearly impossible to ignore the impact that navigation technology has on your average vehicle. Satnavs are, of course, one of the main reasons you'd need a satnav. And with the advent of turn by turn navigation, drivers have never had it so good. The problem? Although more expensive systems often work out less expensive, Viamichelin is the king of that road. I'd like to imagine it's because they put so much thought into the software, but the fact remains that their satnav is worth every penny. You see, Viamichelin use all of the latest breakthroughs in navigational technology to bring you a satnav that feels like a totally separate vehicle. Say it with me, 'your satnav becomes your friend'. And, of course,
