The Road to FIFA '22 "FIFA 22" © EA SPORTS © 2018 The unique "HyperMotion" developed for FIFA 22 provides advanced tracking and control of individual body parts of players, as well as on-ball maneuvers and unpredictable interactions with the ball to give FIFA players a new level of action, control and intensity. "The Road to FIFA '22" is a new Career Mode created to capture and deliver the authentic experience of realistic and open-ended football. In "Road to FIFA" '22 players will experience different football challenges, learn about new aspects of football and develop their on-pitch skills and off-pitch skills as well, with all Career Mode elements planned to reflect real life. The mode's progression and progression approach will be different from other in-game modes. Road to FIFA '22' will give players a sense of ownership over their career, with meaningful achievements that will be tied to progression. Challenges FIFA 22 contains more than 125,000 licensed players with many new personalities and features, and over 1,000 licensed coaches. For the first time, players can pick their perfect team and compete through real matches. Road to FIFA '22' Players will now start their careers with a new Road to FIFA Career Mode, which will focus on learning the game while competing at the highest level. Players will work their way up the ranks by winning and challenging for top titles. By making the first significant step in the career, players will be able to select their formation, tactical approach, training routine, line-up and more. They will get the chance to play in pre-season matches, go on the first-team fitness test, go through intensive coaching sessions and conduct training sessions. Championship In "Road to FIFA '22," players will earn points for their team's league table. Players will also be awarded for making significant steps in their career by achieving new achievements such as: being in the first-team squad, being the captain of their team, being the top scorer in a competition, and more. In addition, the total number of points earned during the season will increase every time the player signs up for an additional payment (usually 1 million+). There will also be a leaderboard that shows the top four players in the Championship and

Fifa 22 Features Key:

- On-the-pitch goal celebrations
- Improved ball physics
- Highest quality and most diverse player cards in franchise history, including all-time greats; star midfielders; and new legends and superstars
- FIFA 22 introduces "HyperMotion Technology." Powered by motion capture data collected from real footballers playing high-intensity motion capture matches, combined with sophisticated AI-driven deep customization, this technology brings a whole new level of immersion to game play.
- Take the pizzazz of pro players and put your creativity at the heart of every shot.
  - Its a free kick. 50 yards out. You see it. You control it. You score!
  - FIFA 22 introduces the most realistic physics simulation to date in an attempt to make each pass movement a core component of the game. The more natural movement, combined with realistic goal kicks, on-pitch behavior, and post-game celebrations, make every shot laser-guided and feel seamlessly effortless.
  - As you soar through the air, you can now see the ball's path before you follow it to the sky or the goal. Your decisions impact the flight of the ball and the direction that it will veer in as you try to get your shot away. On the pitch, your goal-scoring abilities will carry you to the top of the standings while the options you choose in attack will determine the success and impact of your team when you're not scoring.
  - Every player also understands the dimensions of the goal — and the space around it — and how they typically behave in these environments; the result is a 30% improvement of shots on target, making them more likely to go in.

FIFA is a multi-award winning football simulation franchise. Since its launch on August 24, 1990, the FIFA franchise has won a host of awards, including the prestigious Intertoto Cup, the Game of the Year from Edge, and the Sports Game of the Year from Computer Gaming World. The award-winning FIFA franchise has sold more than 150 million copies worldwide since the FIFA Game debuted in 1991. FIFA is the world's biggest and most popular football game franchise, with annual worldwide sales of over 50 million units. FIFA properties include EA SPORTS FIFA, the award-winning football videogame franchise; FIFA Ultimate Team™, the popular community football manager/futbol game; and FIFA Club™, the game that simulates the very real experiences of managing a football club. What was the inspiration for FIFA 22? The game that started it all: Over four decades on, FIFA is still the best football game on the planet. In FIFA 22, we wanted to take things to the next level. With the talent of our team at EA Vancouver, we created a true vision of what it would be like to experience a real-life match with Club Teams and Draft Mode, all within the authentic atmosphere of FIFA. Wanna do something great? It's time to stop dreaming about it and make your dreams a reality with FIFA 22. Players First, the players. FIFA 22 introduces the innovations that have been the most popular and requested by you, the fans. We've introduced robust tactical control and teamwork. This is football as it should be played. You create your tactics, choose your formation and go into battle. No more simply pushing a button and saying "pass the ball," or relying on superstars to just make things happen. In FIFA 22, there is no shortcut. Players are individuals who must overcome challenges and make plays for each other. Some changes involve bringing the attacking and defending to the forefront. New ball physics, ball movement and locomotion make goal scoring difficult, opening up space for defence to step in. Aggressive dribbling and ball retention mean keeping the ball puts you one step ahead. Counter-attacks emerge in new ways, and players can work together to set up dangerous crosses. It all comes down to tactical positioning and communication to score and the art of defending. AI AI in FIFA 22 is more aggressive, tackling harder and more intelligently when the ball
